there is no sufficient room inside the dispensary and so patients have to lie outside?

Dr. D. Raghavendra Rao.—It is not always that there is dearth of accommodation. Sometimes, there is a rush of patients. The first thing is, it is a dispensary. Secondly, these are only emergency beds. So, we cannot classify it as a hospital where there is regular accommodation for ordinary patients. Suppose a case of pneumonia comes in and the medical officer thinks it is a serious case. Even though there is want of space he admits the patient. That does not mean that that dispensary is wanting in space. Only 4 beds have been allowed to that dispensary, and there are many dispensaries even without beds.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.– Is there any protection in the verandah to safeguard the patients from wind and rain?

Dr. D. Raghavendra Rao.—Government do not know.
